Letters of Reference from our Valued Clients

"...We were quite happy with the music services, which you provided for our wedding last July. Your DJ was patient with us, as our dinner and program were delayed, and exhibited the expected energy level of a DJ even after quite a long wait. The volume was of a reasonable level to allow people to socialize when not dancing..."

- Mrs. Mary Lou Jaansalu

"Thank you so much for the excellent job you did at our wedding. You helped to make our day extra special and helped contribute to the many happy memories we will carry with us during our lives. We had many wonderful comments on what a great job Ken did as our DJ."

- John & Lisa Blankenstein

"Just a little note to let you know that we were very pleased with our DJ, Frank. He was professional, helpful, polite and made our evening a very enjoyable one. Many people commented they had a wonderful time and that the DJ was great. The dance floor was always full! Everyone had a big laugh out of the little music inserts Frank threw in during the toasts and speeches!!!"

- Chris & Charlotte Ohlendorff

"Thanks for making our wedding unforgettable. Mike did a fantastic job and was loved by our crowd. Thanks for making our day so special."

- Cindy and Wade Gallant

"...Farley was absolutely terrific. As you may already know, our caterer was late and Farley kept everything up beat and under control. The music was a great mix of country and rock. People are still commenting on how great a time they had..."

- Jill and Todd Dettling

"...Both of the sisters were well groomed, happy, easygoing, well organized and fantastic DJ's. They did a wonderful job in getting the crowd going."

- Christine Rogan

"Thank you for driving that extra 3 hours to go to Macklin, SK and giving us one hell of a party. You helped make our wedding dance a BIG success and it was well appreciated. I really don't know what I would have done without your help."

- Joy & Kevin

"As I did the arranging for my daughter's wedding, I extend my thanks for a job well done, especially as only a couple weeks to arrange as our previously booked company went out of business. We were very satisfied with the service and the DJ's were terrific. All our friends commented on the great job you did for us."

- Betty J. Watson

"...You are a professional entertainer in the nicest sense. You were sensitive to the wishes of the bride and groom and ensured that their evening was special in every way -- but was also fun!"

-Marj & Dick Sandilands

"On November 19, Eric Blais DJ'd at my wedding. I was thoroughly impressed. Mr. Blais was very audience interactive and energetic. He played a great mixture of music and I received compliments from everyone at the dance."

Weddings

The following are a few questions to help you determine if the DJ you are considering is right for your function.

Is the disc jockey a member of any professional organizations?

Members of organizations such as the Canadian Disc Jockey Association (C.D.J.A.) must meet the high standards of quality in performance and business ethics, which are required for membership. Members are investing time and money in their profession and demonstrating that they are serious professionals, dedicated to improving their companies and the DJ Industry. Association members also have access to important benefits such as insurance coverage and emergency Backup personal and equipment.

Are you properly licensed and is your business registered?

In Canada, a disc jockey cannot use cassettes, mini-discs or compilation CD's unless the Audio Video Licensing Agency (A.V.L.A.) licenses them. A DJ that is not licensed risks having their equipment seized right in the middle of your party!

Can the disc jockey supply you with written references from previous clients and properties at which they have worked?

A recommendation from another person is a great way to find out if a DJ is right for your function. A personal reference a lot more believable than a slick brochure sent in the mail. When you ask for references make sure you get previous clients and properties at which the DJ has performed.

Will I receive written confirmation of our agreement?

A verbal agreement is as good as the paper it is written on! Many times a customer gets dumped because the DJ got a better paying party then theirs, or gets the flu all of a sudden, while he is holding on to your deposit. What course of action can you take? If it is not written down, none! As a CDJA Member, we provide a contract to all our customers.

Can we discuss music selections and function procedures?

It is YOUR evening, not the DJ's. Don't be told what to expect. Deal with a company that will work with you. Twilite Music Services Ltd. actually provides Wedding schedules to all their customers, so we can assist you in planning your evening.

Will the disc jockey use professional equipment?

Make sure that the DJ uses only professional audio equipment. Pro audio equipment is made to handle the demanding conditions that are required of a mobile sound system. A system comprised of only pro equipment is far less likely to fail and will look and sound better than a home built system.

Does the disc jockey carry back up equipment and have emergency personnel available?

Even with the best equipment and planning, unforeseen circumstances sometimes occur. It is important to know that the DJ has a backup plan in case of illness, equipment failure, or accident. The DJ should carry back-ups of all major equipment components to every event. The DJ should also network with other DJs in the area to provide backup personnel in the unlikely event they are needed.

Do you know proper etiquette and procedure for my occasion?

Black tie for a beach party? Shorts for a ballroom wedding? We work with you and dress to your desire. The DJ should be prepared to handle any announcements and special events throughout your event. There are many options for specialty games and crowd participation dances, which can enhance any event. Whether you prefer wild or mild, you should be able to decide exactly how interactive the entertainment will be before the event takes place.

These are the questions you should ask when hiring a Disc Jockey!
